

IMMIGRANT WORKERS: A POPULATION AT HIGH RISK FOR OCCUPATIONAL INJURY AND ILLNESS

COEH SPRING SYMPOSIUM
APRIL 18, 2008 8AM-4:30PM
ELIHU HARRIS STATE OFFICE
BUILDING AUDITORIUM
1515 CLAY ST, OAKLAND, CA

The 2008 COEH Symposium will examine current research on occupational health hazards disproportionately affecting immigrant workers, exploring health care access and policy initiatives affecting diverse populations with a focus on understanding and developing intervention strategies to reduce occupational illnesses and injuries among this growing community.

Presentations and panel discussions by:

Robin Baker	Sylvia Guendelman	David Rempel
John Balmes	Robert Harrison	Marc Schenker
Rajiv Bhatia	Niklas Krause	Rossana Segovia-Bain
Xochitl Castaneda	Steven McCurdy	Glenn Shor
Helen Chen	Meredith Minkler	Don Villarejo
Rupali Das	Rachel Morello-Frosch

More information at coeh.berkeley.edu
Register now at www.coehce.org